

A perfect setting for the most perfect day

The Barn perfectly combines a sense of the traditional with the contemporary. The stunning and comfortable venue along with the relaxed yet chic experience it offers lends itself perfectly to this, the most romantic of occasions!

Chester's premier restaurant and bar venue The Barn is now available for Wedding parties. The venues' impressive and respectful renovation has resulted in a beautiful interior filled with character which has already made a strong impression on diners across the North West. The Barn has a range of charming features including the large, chic open plan restaurant, striking bar area and some impressive chandeliers hanging from the original beams. The Barn is an ideal location for those wanting an elegant wedding party at a stunning, and new, location in Cheshire.

The Barn does not have a 'set' wedding package – it simply offers you the freedom to create your own perfect day down to the last detail. The team of chefs will work with you to create a bespoke wedding breakfast menu with a focus on seasonal, quality, regional ingredients. The Barn's dedicated team who pride themselves on excellent service will be busy working to ensure your special day is no less than perfect.

Numbers

The Barn can seat up to 85 guests comfortably inside. The venue layout also means it can easily be personalised to make a more intimate setting for smaller groups. Outside with the use of a bespoke marquee in the grounds The Barn can accommodate up to 120 guests seated. So, whether you want an intimate dinner party or a large, lavish celebration with all the trimmings, we can provide you with everything you need.
